Business Start-up Programme, Austria (Inclusive Business Creation: Good Practice Compendium)

This case study is an example of an integrated programme that supports the unemployed in business creation. Support includes training, counselling and financial support. This case study describes the programme’s objectives and rationale, and provides an overview of the key activities. It also presents the impact and challenges faced, and includes a discussion of the conditions for transferring this practice to another context.

Country: Austria
LinkToContentAt: http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264251496-6-en Knowledge Type: Country report Other Tag: training
consultancy
consultants
copyright
early stage
entrepreneurial capabilities financial support
legal quality
business enterprise expenditure in research and development business surveys
business cycle
philanthropy
policy framework
programme design
rule of law
science skills
segmentation
simulation model
socio-economic impact
Parent URL: http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264251496-en

Links
[1] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/country/austria [16] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/programme-design [17] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/rule-law [18] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/science-skills [19] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/segmentation [22] http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264251496-en