Economic stability and trust in institutions in Australia (Innovation, Agricultural Productivity and Sustainability in Australia)

This chapter outlines the importance of economic stability and public institutions in fostering public and private investment. It provides an overview of the performance of the overall economy, outlines macroeconomic developments and challenges, explains the federal-provincial governance system, and presents an evaluation of public institutions.

Country: Australia

Knowledge Type: Country report

Other Tag: trust value for money
work place
copyright corruption employment conditions
foreign direct investment innovation skills
labour market
market demand
national strategies
capital markets
private equity
public labs
public understanding of science climate change
regulatory diffusion
role of government
strategic research

Parent URL: http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264238367-en

Links
[1] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/country/australia [6] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/copyright-0 [8] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/employment-conditions [10] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/innovation-skills [12] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/market-demand [16] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/public-labs [18] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/climate-change [19] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/regulatory-diffusion [21] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/strategic-research [22] http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264238367-en