Entrepreneurially Into the World of Business, Slovenia (Inclusive Business Creation: Good Practice Compendium)

This case study presents a project that supports youth in business creation. It presents the project's objectives and rationale, and describes its activities, including entrepreneurship training, coaching and mentoring, business counselling and an allowance. Data on the impact are also presented. The case study also discusses the challenges faced in designing and delivering this project and the conditions needed to transfer it to another context.

Country: Slovenia

LinkToContentAt: http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264251496-21-en

Knowledge Type: Country report

Other Tag: training

copyright

core competences

doctoral degree

entrepreneurship programmes

evaluation system

financial support

higher education system human development index

measurement framework

business networks

business skills

philanthropy

public understanding of science regional collaboration

regional development

segmentation

social challenges

Parent URL: http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264251496-en

Source URL: https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/document/entrepreneurially-world-business-slovenia-inclusive-business-creation-good-practice

Links

[1] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/country/slovenia

[8] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/evaluation-system

[10] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/higher-education-system

[12] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/measurement-framework

[16] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/public-understanding-science

[17] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/regional-collaboration

[18] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/regional-development

[19] https://www.innovationpolicyplatform.org/topic/segmentation
