Malaysia's socio-economic and innovation context (Boosting Malaysia's National Intellectual Property System for Innovation)

The chapter describes Malaysia’s socio-economic development, its industry and trade structure, and the existing framework conditions for innovation activities, covering human capital, finance and infrastructure. It goes on to provide an overview of the national innovation system and the policy and governance of innovation policy in Malaysia.

Country: Malaysia

LinkToContentAt: http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264239227-5-en

Knowledge Type: Country report

Other Tag: venture capital agriculture

environmental technologies foreign direct investment high-tech
horizontal coordination biotechnology
intellectual property skills managing risk
nanotechnology
national strategies
access to finance
product design
research conditions
research expenditure
science skills
commercialisation
systemic risk
tax credits

Parent URL: http://dx.doi.org/10.1787/9789264239227-en
